CELEBRITY CUTTING

Benefiting UT Southwestern
Fort Worth

Presented by

ICONIC REAL ESTATE

The NCHA Celebrity Cutting is a premier event that brings together renowned celebrities and skilled cutting horse trainers to showcase the thrilling sport of cutting while raising funds for an unbelievable cause. This unique competition, hosted by the National Cutting Horse Association, will feature stars from some of today's most popular film and television projects — including talent from Taylor Sheridan productions such as Landman, Lioness, Mayor of Kingstown, The Madison and more — alongside other notable celebrities. As they partner with top equine athletes to navigate the sport of cutting, the event highlights the excitement and skill involved and celebrates the Western lifestyle, offering fans an unforgettable experience filled with entertainment, horsemanship, and community spirit. Join us for a memorable evening where celebrities and cutting enthusiasts unite to honor this dynamic and historic sport and support UT Southwestern Fort Worth.
